LETTER EXPRESSING THANKS

The Mattapoisett Branch of the Red Cross would like to publicly thank all those townspeople who so graciously volunteered and gave so generously of their time and energy before, during and after the visit of "Donna".

We especially want to thank Mrs. Kenneth Tirrell, Mrs. Maurice Linhares, Mrs. Loren Mosher, Mrs. Alfred Faria and Mrs. Jose Carvalho for their help in setting up our canteen service and working thru until the last request for coffee had been filled and to those who distributed coffee among the workers in the wee small hours.

Also the town merchants who got up in the middle of the night that we might get our supplies of food, drugs, etc.

To Mr. Tirrell and Mr. Caswell, the school custodians, and those who made it possible for us to use the school. It has proven an ideal spot for such emergencies.

Thanks to each and every one of you.

Mrs. Marjorie Sylvia, chairman
Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, co-chairman
Mrs. Nora DeCoffe, nurse.

REPUBLICAN FUND RAISING CAMPAIGN

Local Republican fund raisers are busily ringing doorbells for GOP campaign contributions, and also with the hope of earning their way to the giant Republican Campaign Dinner in Boston on September 29th when Vice-President Richard M. Nixon will be the principal speaker, it was announced by Clifford I. Tripp, Jr., Republican Finance chairman of Mattapoisett.

In a recent statement Lloyd B. Waring, general State chairman of the dinner, said that at least 50% of the expected 5000 who will attend the dinner will be rank and file members of the party who had earned their tickets in this manner.

Purpose of the dinner, one of 35 being held simultaneously throughout the nation, is to raise funds to support the Republican National and State and Local campaigns to elect Nixon and Lodge, a Republican Congress and the entire Massachusetts Republican slate, headed by Leverett Saltonstall, candidate for re-election to the United States Senate, and John Volpe, candidate for Governor

Chairman Tripp pointed out that any Republican who raises a total of $100.00 through smaller contributions will earn a ticket to the dinner being held at the Commonwealth Armory.

Any of the following would be happy to receive contributions from anyone not solicited in the door-to-door canvas: George D. Heath, Robert Walker, David N. Haley, William L. Sylvia, Roger C. Morris, William J. Spark, Jr., Malcolm E. Whiteside, Walter H. Apperson, David S. Hagen, Carleton Burr and Clifford I. Tripp, Jr.

ENTERTED TUFTS COLLEGE

Miss Beverly J. Turner left last week to enter her Freshman year at Tufts College in Medford, Mass. A June graduate of Fairhaven High School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Turner of Church Street, Mattapoisett, who attended matriculation exercises held at the college on Saturday night.

PROGRAM FOR BROWNIES PLANNED

A meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Omerine Ross of Rochester, troop organizer for Brownies and intermediates, and the general programming for the coming year was discussed. Enlisting the help of additional adult workers was also discussed, and persons interested are requested to contact Mrs. Ross.

Troop leaders, Mrs. Edmund R. Arruda and Mrs. Nathan Lawrence, are scheduled to hold a meeting with their committees within a week. Plans will be formulated to register new girls, set up patrols and increase committees.

An anticipated registration of 70 Brownies and intermediates are expected from the survey made last Spring. This number also includes girls already registered from last June. Attending the meeting were Mrs. Clifton H. Chase, Miss Mary Alice Chase, Mrs. Robert Hartley, Mrs. Logan Doane, Mrs. Alexander Thomson, Mrs. Stephen Lawrence, Mrs. Lloyd Gerrish, Mrs. George M. Leconte and

FAIR HELD IN ROCHESTER

The 50th consecutive Rochester Grange Fair was held recently with the Department of Agriculture State ribbon awarded to Robert G. Hartley, adult rosette to Mrs. Charles Tuttle and the youth rosette to Kathleen Gayoski. Winner of door prizes and special prizes were Daniel L. Hartley, Alfred Spagnoli of Mattapoisett, Miss Lucille Ouellette, lamp; Mrs. James Hartley, blanket; Mrs. William Watling, chicken dinner; Mrs. Oscar Norton, blanket and Lorna Lizotte, doll play pen set.

With Rochester Grange having reached its half-way mark, the last few years have seen improved dining hall, parking facilities with the hall used for many worthwhile benefits.

To name only a few, it has been used for benefits to help unfortunate families or individuals, various clinics, instructive movies, entertainments and shows. Grange members are at present working with members of the Rochester Men's Brotherhood for the minstrel show to be presented jointly by both organizations at 8 P.M. October 21-22 at the Grange Hall.

The Grange Fair was held in cooperation with the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture. A supper was served at 6:30 in the dining room of the hall.

Judging the exhibits were Dominic A. Marini, county extension agent in agriculture, and Mrs. E. H. Perkins of Middleboro.

President of the Grange is Mrs. Edith Norman, and she also was chairman of the fair. Others
